

Exodus 16 Discussion Question

The Israelites complained that they would die of hunger, so God provided them manna to eat. He gave them clear instructions, but some didn't follow the instructions – some even went without food on the Sabbath.

Has there ever been a time when despite God's clear instructions, you did things your own way?

Exodus 17 Discussion Question

The Israelites faced an enemy – Amalek. The victory would not be won by battle alone, but by the might of the Lord as Moses' hands were raised. Aaron and Hur came alongside him and held up his arms so the battle could be won.

Whom have you come alongside and been an Aaron or Hur to, so a battle could be won?

Exodus 18 Discussion Question

Moses chose to listen to the wise counsel of his father-in-law on organizing a team of men who would help him lead the over 4 million Israelites through this journey in the wilderness.

What wise counsel have you been given lately? How has it helped you in your personal life?

Exodus 19 Discussion Question

God was preparing to come and meet with the people in a dramatic and holy meeting; but He wanted them to sanctify themselves, to prepare themselves physically and spiritually.

How do you think this applies to us today? What should we do to prepare ourselves to meet with God? Do you think you do this adequately?

Exodus 20 Discussion Question

We know the first 17 verses of this chapter well. But let's look at how the Israelites responded to God's holy encounter with them.

How do you think their response shaped the future of their nation? How do you think this applies to us today? Has there been a time in your life when you chose not to hear directly from God?
