

Exodus 21 Discussion Question

God's laws are being presented to the people.

When dealing in the area of personal injuries and servants, what would the world be like if we were to follow some of the same principles today?

Exodus 22 Discussion Question

God's guidelines on dealing with each other seem to be one of simply looking out for one another.

Is there someone that you can reach out to today and show them that you truly care?

Exodus 23 Discussion Question

God expresses the importance of taking time to rest.

What are some ways that you ensure that you take time to rest?

Exodus 24 Discussion Question

After Moses had finished presenting all of the laws he asked the people if they agreed to those terms to which they all chose to accept.

Name a time that you made an agreement with God. Did you stay true to the terms of that agreement?

Exodus 25 Discussion Question

God became very specific about the design He wanted for the ark.

If He is that specific in the design of an object how specific to you think He is on the design of our lives?