

The Book of Mark Discussion Questions

Chapter 1: When Jesus called his first disciples, the Bible says they immediately dropped everything to follow him.

Have you ever felt God leading you in a new direction and how did you respond?

Chapter 2: Today we are reminded that Jesus ministered to those that others deemed unworthy.

Is there someone in your life who seems unworthy but who needs both the gospel and your love?

Chapter 3: We are reminded as believers that we are all family.

How can this truth help fill a void in your life? How have you already experienced this?

Chapter 4: Jesus has all authority over nature. Even the wind and waves obey Him.

How does knowing the power of Jesus, give you peace in the midst of your life storms?

Chapter 5: Jesus reminds us that faith in him can heal us spiritually and even physically.

Name a time when faith in Jesus has helped you overcome a struggle.

Chapter 6: When the apostles returned to Jesus from sharing the gospel, He told them to find a desolate place and rest awhile.

Where do you go to be alone, to seek God and replenish your soul?

Chapter 7: Today we are reminded to do things for the simple love of God and not because they are simply tradition.

Is there something that you have always done because you thought it was right, only to discover that it was a tradition and not God's law?

Chapter 8: We are commanded to take up our cross daily and follow Christ.

What does taking up your cross and denying yourself look like in your life?

Chapter 9: Jesus said, all things are possible for the one that believes.

Do you believe the impossible for your life? How have you seen God work through your belief?

Chapter 10: Jesus tells us that we must be willing to leave behind everything for His sake.

What are you holding onto that is preventing you from following God in your life?

Chapter 11: Before we seek the Lord in prayer, we must forgive those that have wronged or hurt us.

Who do you need to offer forgiveness to today?

Chapter 12: The greatest commandment is that we love God with all of our heart, soul, mind and strength and the second is that we love others as ourselves.

We don't always wake up in the morning ready to love God and others the way we should. How can we center our thoughts and minds on obeying these two greatest commandments every morning?

Chapter 13: We are called to watch for the coming of the Lord because we do not know the day nor the hour of His return.

How are you watching for Jesus' return?

Chapter 14: Often we have the best intentions to follow the Lord, as His disciples did, yet along the way we fail.

Is there something that is tempting you today? Watch yourself. Write a prayer telling God your temptations and ask him for strength to not fall.

Chapter 15: Reflect on the pain and suffering Jesus endured for you. He shed His blood for YOU! All of our sins are forgiven because of His blood! Sweet victory in Jesus!

Sing a song of worship today. Read a Psalm of praise. Write out a prayer of thanksgiving. Get on your knees, humble yourself before your King and give him glory and honor.

Chapter 16: We are called to go into the world and share the gospel with everyone.

How are you taking part in fulfilling the great commission?
