

The Book of James
Discussion/Reflection Questions

Week 1

Day 1: Are you in the midst of a trial today? What is the trial and how can you find joy in the middle of the testing of your faith?

Day 2: How do you not only hear and read God's Word but also put it into action in your day to day life?

Day 3: Christians are to not show favoritism based on someone's wealth or nice clothing. In what ways do you struggle with showing favoritism and loving everyone, as God would have you love them?

Day 4: We are reminded that we must show both faith and works throughout all our Christian walk. In what ways can we do this today?

Day 5: The tongue is capable of both blessing God and cursing people. James says this should not be so. Has your tongue grown out of control? In what areas do you need to confess your sin to God and make changes?

Week 2

Day 1: Wisdom is a gift from God and reflects the character of God. It leads to godliness. Are you living wisely? In what areas of your life do you need more wisdom?

Day 2: Do you have a strained relationship with someone close to you in your life? Why is there tension between you two? In what ways can you safeguard yourself from confusing your own personal desires with God's desires?

Day 3: Is there an area in your life where you know what to do but are not doing it? What changes do you need to make today to avoid sin in your life?

Day 4: A Christian should be trustworthy and a person of their word. Do you struggle with keeping your word? Is there a promise you need to follow through on or someone you need to apologize to, for a broken promise?

Day 5: James tells us there is great power in the prayers of a righteous person. Have you neglected your prayer life? How have you seen the power of God displayed through your prayers?
