

The Book of Joshua
Discussion/Reflection Questions

Chapter 1

Throughout the reading, the Israelites are reminded to be strong and courageous.

What is something that you are dealing with today that requires you to be strong and courageous?

Chapter 2

Rahab stepped out in faith to help the spies.

Name a time you had to step out in faith for God.

Chapter 3

God used a miracle to show Joshua and all of Israel that He was with them.

How has God shown you that he is with you?

Chapter 4

The Israelites created a memorial, made of stones, to remind them of how God had helped them.

Do you have something you have held onto as a reminder of how God has helped you?

Chapter 5

Joshua asked the commander of the army of the Lord, what was required of him.

Have you humbled yourself under God's direction? How have you sought out God's will for your life?

Chapter 6

God gave Israel victory over a highly fortified city in the most unusual way.

Is there something in your life that seems too difficult to overcome on your own? Perhaps it's time to give the battle to the Lord. Write a prayer today asking God to help you have victory.

Chapter 7

Joshua is confused as to why God allowed them to be defeated until he is shown that Achan had sinned against God.

Are there things in your own life that are holding you back from all of God's possible blessings?

Chapter 8

Once the transgression of Achan had been dealt with, God was ready to provide them with a victory.

Name a time, when once you confessed your sin and dealt with the issue, you felt God working in your favor.

Chapter 9

Despite the fact, that they were lied to, the Israelites still honored their vow of peace.

How does this provide us with a reminder about our own dealings with others?

Chapter 10

Joshua prayed a bold prayer of faith. He called out to the Lord, in the sight of Israel, and asked God to make the sun stand still and He did.

Is there something you have been praying for that you that you have given up on? Pray a bold prayer of faith today. Watch and see what God does.

Chapter 11

After a long battle, there was peace for a season.

Sometimes our journey may be long but at the end, there is always peace when we put God first. How does this bring you comfort in your current season of life?

Chapter 12

Today we revisited all the kings that God helped Moses and Joshua defeat.

God has helped us defeat many things in our lives. What is one thing God has helped you defeat?

Chapter 13

Though they still did not have the land, Joshua had to show faith that they would by dividing out the unconquered land to the appropriate tribes.

Name a time that God has had you step out in blind faith. How did it turn out?

Chapter 14

Caleb was given Hebron because he believed and trusted God fully even when others doubted.

How does this remind you of your own Christian journey?

Chapter 15

Achsah had a boldness about her just like her father. She wasn't afraid to ask Caleb for what she and her husband needed.

Is there something that you need and yet you haven't asked another person or God for it? Do it today.

Chapter 16

Even though the Ephraim tribe received their land, they still did not fulfill God's command and instead kept the Canaanites as slaves.

Is there something you are holding onto, even though God has delivered you out of a bad situation? Today, let's deal with it and let go of it.

Chapter 17

Joshua has to remind the people of Manasseh that they have great power. They had forgotten all that God had already delivered them from.

Who is someone that is your Joshua, the person who reminds you that you are strong because you are a child of God?

Chapter 18

The people had become comfortable with their current condition so they were not doing anything to claim what was theirs.

Do you find yourself too comfortable to fulfill the plans that God has for you?
How can you work towards fixing that today?

Chapter 19

After all the land was given out, Joshua received his reward.

As a leader, he didn't seek to get the first cut of the land. He waited and he was rewarded with a city. What does this teach you?

Chapter 20

God appointed a place of refuge for those who killed a man without intent. This was his hiding place, from the avenger.

How does this remind you of Jesus and how He cares for us?

Chapter 21

Though their journey had been long, God delivered on His promises to His people.

How does this bring you comfort as you are dealing with your current battles?

Chapter 22

Now that the people are all settled in, it was important to remind them to continue to love God with all their heart and to continue to follow His commandments.

Has your heart been tempted to stray? How do you stay focused on God throughout the day?

Chapter 23

Temptation is always around us. Yet it is important not to allow our temptations to get the best of us.

How do you combat your temptations? Do you have a special friend you can talk with or maybe a special Bible verse that keeps you on track?

Chapter 24

We are reminded we cannot serve two masters.

Is there something in your life that is standing in the way of you serving God fully today? Make that change today!
