Isaiah 44-66

Welcome to Good Morning Girls! We are so glad you are joining us.

God created us to walk with Him, to know Him, and to be loved by Him. He is our living well, and when we drink from the water He continually provides, His living water will change the entire course of our lives.

Jesus said: "Whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never be thirsty again. The water that I will give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life." ~ Johns 4:14(ESV)

So let's begin.

The method we use here at GMG is called the SOAK method.

- S – The S stands for Scripture – Read the chapter for the day. Then choose 1-2 verses and write them out word for word. (There is no right or wrong choice – just let the Holy Spirit guide you.)
- O – The O stands for Observation – Look at the verse or verses you wrote out. Write 1 or 2 observations. What stands out to you? What do you learn about the character of God from these verses? Is there a promise, command or teaching?
- A – The A stands for Application – Personalize the verses. What is God saying to you? How can you apply them to your life? Are there any changes you need to make or an action to take?
- K – The K stands for Kneeling in Prayer – Pause, kneel and pray. Confess any sin God has revealed to you today. Praise God for His word. Pray the passage over your own life or someone you love. Ask God to help you live out your applications.
- SOAK God's word into your heart and squeeze every bit of nourishment you can out of each day's scripture reading. Soon you will find your life transformed by the renewing of your mind!

Walk with the King!

Introduction to the Book of Isaiah

The name Isaiah means salvation is of the Lord. Isaiah brought to Israel and Judah, a message of judgement for their rebellion but also a message of hope for salvation, through the coming Messiah.

For the first part of Isaiah, Isaiah focuses on God's judgement of Israel. Isaiah's message is one of condemnation for their faithless rebellion against God. God's people had turned their back on God and had become like the other nations around them. God would use the Assyrians and Babylonians to bring judgement upon them. Isaiah called on God's people to turn back and seek the Lord and he assures them that after judgement, a godly remnant would remain.

For the second part of Isaiah, Isaiah announces that Israel's punishment and exile is over, and salvation has come. We see that God is faithful to his covenant promises. No other prophet is quoted in the New Testament as much as Isaiah. Isaiah foretold the coming King of Israel, who would rule in justice and peace and would bear their sins.

The book of Isaiah offers the most complete prophetic picture of Jesus Christ in the entire Old Testament. Some of the prophecies fulfilled in Christ from the book of Isaiah are: he would be born of a virgin (Isaiah 7:14), he would be spit on and struck (Isaiah 50:6), he would be disfigured by suffering (Isaiah 52:14; 53:2), he would be rejected (Isaiah 53:1-3), he would bear our sins (Isaiah 53:4-5, 12), he would voluntarily die like a lamb to the slaughter (Isaiah 53:7), he would heal the blind, lame, deaf, diseased, broken hearted and raise from the dead (Isaiah 26:19, Isaiah 29:18-19, Isaiah 61:1-2) he would be buried in a rich man's tomb (Isaiah 53:9) and he would return to claim his own (Isaiah 60:2-3). Because of all of these prophecies fulfilled in Christ, this book is a book of hope and salvation from the Lord.

The Purpose: God used Isaiah to proclaim judgement to his people, so they would repent and turn back to him. He also used Isaiah's message of coming hope and salvation, to be a comfort to them.

The Author: Isaiah was a well-educated prophet, who was married, with two children. Tradition holds that Isaiah was martyred by being sawn in two. Isaiah ministered during the reign of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah. Isaiah was a contemporary to the prophets Hosea and Micah. More about Israel's history during this time period can be found in 2 Kings 15-21 and 2 Chronicles 26-33.

Time Period: 740-680 B.C.

Key Verse: Isaiah 55:11

So shall my word be that goes out from my mouth;
it shall not return to me empty,
but it shall accomplish that which I purpose,
and shall succeed in the thing for which I sent it.

The Outline:

Message of Judgement (1-35)

- The coming judgement of Israel and Judah (1-5)
- Isaiah's calling (6-7)
- Judgement and hope (8-12)
- Judgement of the other nations (13-24)
- Promised restoration (25-27)
- Judgement and salvation (28-35)

Isaiah and Hezekiah (36-39)

Messages of Comfort and Salvation (40-66)

- The Lord's plan of restoration for Israel (40-45)
- The fall of Babylon (46-48)
- Salvation through the servant (49-56)
- Call to repentance (57-59)
- Glorious salvation (60-65)
- God's righteous and final judgement (66)

Despite God giving Israel multiple chances to repent and turn from their ways, they continued in their sin and rebellion. As a result, God's judgement was upon them. But even through all of the dark times, God was still at work among His people. Eventually, salvation would come through the Messiah. God keeps his covenant promises to his people. We serve a faithful God, who loves us.

So, let's get started studying His word! Some of the chapters are quite long, so be sure to leave at least 20 minutes for your reading each day. I can't wait to see how God reveals himself personally to each of us, as we read the book of Isaiah together, chapter by chapter.

Keep walking with the King,

Courtney
